CIRCULAR OF GOVERNMENT.

In order that cases of Government servants held up at efficiency bars may be periodically reviewed with a view to determine whether to quality of their work has improved and, generally, whether the defects for which they were stopped at the bar have been remedied to an extent sufficient to warrant the removal of the bar, Government has decided that, in future, orders holding up a Government servant at an efficiency bar should specify the period after the expiry of which the case is to be reviewed. This period should nomally be one year. The same orders should apply to subsequent reviews, if any.
